PTFA Gardening day 25th June

Huge thanks to the PTFA for their work last week in the gardens. They are holding another gardening day, ahead of the School fete, Please feel free to help out! We will be in school from 9am. Please bring garden tools/gloves.

Thanks too to Lucy Lou's for donating 20 bags of top-soil.

Donations of any seedlings/plants willingly accepted!

The Feast of St James is a free event for families on Saturday 18th July—organisers hope this Medieval Fayre in Tiverton might become a yearly event!

-American Summer Concert, Tiverton Concert Band, St Paul's Church Westex, 4th July 7.30

Squirrel class visited Church on Thursday, learning about Baptism. Thanks to Holly Haig and Sue Leach who christened our 'baby'.

Well done to everyone who completed their Bikeability course—Miss Smale complimented you on your manners and attitude!

Our new look website should be up and running within the week.

Please remember to let the office know if you would like newsletters emailed directly to you.

Non Uniform day 26th June

To support the PTFA with the School Fete, we are holding a non uniform day on the 26th June. In return, the PTFA shall be very grateful to receive donations for the Chocolate Tombola or contributions to the cake stall.
