This Week

Mon 6th: Stag class Lion King rehearsal at THS (during school)

9 July—9.30am Sports Day

Super Learners

Ryker Jefferies for resilience with his writing

McKenzie Wright for being such a kind reciprocal learner

Izzy Kingdon for perseverance, a positive attitude with her learning, and lovely handwriting in class!

Evelyn Prescott for perseverance, quietly working on her confidence and reciprocity in class

Daisy Saunders for improved confidence with her reading.

Finley Luxton for resilience and resourcefulness

We are holding a Spirited Art Day on Friday 9 July. This is a whole school event. Please can you bring in ANY materials that could be used for collages? Our new vicar Reverend Kevin Chandra will be judging some of the artwork

Many thanks to parents who helped with digging the new garden area outside EYFS. This area is being developed to enrich the learning of our younger children.

LOCAL EVENTS

The Feast of St James is a free event for families on Saturday 18th July—organisers hope this Medieval Fayre in Tiverton might become a yearly event!

-American Summer Concert, Tiverton Concert Band, St Paul's Church Westexe, 4th July 7.30

The School Fete, which raised £1139 was enjoyed by all on Saturday. Thank you to EVERYONE who played a part, whether it was setting up, hosting stalls or clearing up after the event!

Thanks to our special visitors, Queen Victoria and Albert the Raven, who opened the fete and The Red Barrow Display Team for entertaining us so well!

Everyone looked like they were having great fun and the weather for it could not have been better.

Well done!

OUR NEW WEBSITE IS UP AND RUNNING! We're still adding to it but we hope you like it.

Newsletters will be published directly there—and we can email you a copy too. Please email the office at "bamptonadmin@swsf.org" and we'll add you to the distribution list.
