Superlearners!

Camlin Conway—you've been such a super learner this week! Your determination, resilience and maturity have been appreciated, and you are always striving for new challenges.

Finley Luxton—what a great year you're having! Your attitude to learning is impressive, and you show dedication in all your work.

Ellie Lewis—you created an amazing piece of homework, and have shown resilience in all of your learning. Fantastic growth mindset!

William Mitchell—you are such a polite and caring member of Hedgehog class, and you showed real determination in learning new skills this week.

Well done! We are very proud of you!!

We marked Remembrance Day with a short silence, and planted some Poppy crosses outside the classrooms. All the children spent time looking at why Remembrance day is important and who we are remembering. Thanks to those parents who brought in extra resources, including a Tower of London Poppy.

KS1 Nativity

The date has changed!! See our website for more details but it's now on Tuesday 15th at 5pm

Due to our increasing numbers in KS1 we have appointed another teacher, who will start with us in January.

We have also recruited another learning support assistant who will start next Monday.

We are still recruiting for a Meal Time Assistant—if you think you might be interested, please ask at the office for more details.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY: We've arranged another of our popular Phonics workshops for Parents. It's on January 20th, for KS1 parents. It'll be at the school between 5 and 6, and will be run by Mr Carter and Mrs Ferneyhough.
