Rufus Lowden well done for being such a resilient learner this week. Your imaginative play is lovely and you always invite your friends to join you.

Sophie Caunter your African drum homework was very impressive—your creative flair was very apparent! Well done on continuing to challenge yourself in all of your work.

Georgia Harris you always amaze us with your "can do" attitude—you always go the extra mile in your home learning and do extra tasks. Well done!

Alfred Jones you have tried so hard in all your lessons this week, and worked well with everyone in Stag. Your writing was particularly impressive.

Well done everyone!!

Tiverton Lantern Parade

Thank you to all the children and parents who came to the Tiverton Lantern Parade on Saturday. It was a chilly but fun evening and everyone felt pretty festive by the end of it! Our lanterns looked brilliant—thank you to Mrs Wensley for her hard work on that too. You all looked lovely in your African hats, masks and face paints too! There are more pictures on the website!

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY: We've arranged another of our popular Phonics workshops for Parents. It's on January 20th, for KS1 parents. It'll be at the school between 5 and 6, and will be run by Mr Carter and Mrs Ferneyhough.
